

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES IN THE LEADING RESORTS

which have taken place there in more than thirty-three years. Almost before the bride and groom had boarded the special car in Maryland the announcements and the Supreme Court decision, while to distant friends the official word, they reached their destination only a few hours after the ceremony.

These announcements were without the usual numerous envelopes used on such occasions, and were plainly engraved with the White House crest in white at the top and "The White House" embossed in the upper left hand corner of the single envelope. They were the heartiest of the bride and groom to the very hour of the ceremony to be "asked." It was probably the first time in the history of the home of Presidents that persons asked there as guests were requested to attend every feature of the wedding with absolute secrecy. However, the world was not so hungry for pages of gowns were described. Some went to a downtown music store and heard Miss Margaret Wilson's voice over a record.

When the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo return to Washington the bride will take her place in the Cabinet and will receive the calls of those who duty or pleasure—it is to extend the formality. Luckily for her, the official season is over, and the only duty which upon her will be to call upon the wife of the Vice-President and persuade the wives of the ambassadors and Supreme Court justices. When the next social season opens she will have to call upon the wives of Senators. The Cabinet, however, will probably exact nothing of the bride, as they will appreciate that she is the youngest woman who, in the history of the country, has ever occupied the position of a Cabinet member's wife. The other part of official society will also be lenient.

If perchance, as rumor goes, the President's son-in-law is appointed to an ambassadorship, Mrs. McAdoo will be relieved of the duties which have strained the nerves of many other Cabinet women.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall will be the guests of honor at a dinner given on Monday night, with Representative and Mrs. Gerry as hosts. The same night General and Mrs. Barnett will give another of their series of dinner parties. Senator and Mrs. John Weeks will be the hosts of honor.

The Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson are all to be hosts of the week.

Probably the most typically Southern of all the entertainments scheduled in honor of the Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall will be the buffet supper to be given at Rauter's on Friday evening, May 15, with Senator and Mrs. Fletcher as hosts. A more informal way of entertaining a large company of people could not be conceived, and it will afford excellent opportunity for the meeting of official society.

Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, the progressive girl of the Cabinet, motored to Baltimore today, accompanied by her house guest, Miss Ragdale, and a party of children, including Frank and Jonathan Daniels, sons of the Secretary and Mrs. Daniels. Jean Denmore, the twelve-year-old daughter of the Solicitor of the Department of Labor and Mrs. Denmore, and Jessie Wilson, youngest daughter of the Secretary of Labor, and Mrs. Wilson. They stopped in Baltimore for luncheon and to visit some interesting places and then returned to Washington.

THE SPRING SEASON AT NEWPORT

Some Few Summer Colonists and Cottage Hunters Arrive During the Week.

Newport, R. I., May 9.—Week by week the busy social season here grows warmer at hand, and week by week sees the gradual opening of the summer homes. The summer section of the city is unfolding like the buds on the trees that adorn the many estates.

The present week has seen the arrival of a few of the cottagers, and there is a long list of others who have signified their intention to come before the end of the month. Robert Ives Gammell, of Providence, and family have arrived at their home, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. A. Clark have arrived at the cottage which they have taken, on Clay st. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Norman are at their Washington st. home; Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Mason are at Wabun, on Catherine st.; Mrs. John Borland has arrived at the Hughes cottage on Hill st. They have recently been visiting Mrs. De Rose's sister, Miss Annie Varum, at her cottage in Newport.

Mrs. Clarence Pell and Miss Charlotte Pell have signified their intention of arriving about May 15. Others who are expected on the same date are Mr. and Mrs. Percy D. Haughton, of Boston, and Mrs. John R. Busk and Miss Margaret H. Busk at Indian Spring. Milton S. Barger is to open Edna Villa on May 20, and others who are expected in a short time or surely before the end of the month include Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Davis, Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rives, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Marsden J. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Post, Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturges, the Misses Mason, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Pearson, Mrs. J. C. Mallory, Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Mattison, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Quentin Jones, Captain and Mrs. Hugh Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. George B. DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Abney, Mr. and Mrs. Ettore R. Fontana, Mrs. Andrew G. Dulles and Colonel Howard A. Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Glyn have been here this week inspecting their summer home, which has been enlarged since last summer by the addition of the Cutting estate. Mr. and Mrs. Glyn had the old Cutting house torn down, but they retained the foundation, and this they have utilized in a unique manner, turning it into the boundary walls for a sunken garden. It is the only one of its kind here, and while not yet completed promises to be a pleasing feature of Mr. and Mrs. Glyn's home.

According to recent announcements, the June arrivals are to include Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hoffman, at Armsca Hall; Mr. and Mrs. William Woodward, at the Cloisters; Mrs. E. H. G. Slater, Colonel and Mrs. C. L. F. Robinson, Mrs. Richard Gambrill, former Commodore and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clews, Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. R. Livingston Beckman, Mrs. William R. Hunter and daughter, Miss Edith H. Hunter; Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, at Hammersmith Farm, and Mrs. George D. Widener and her family, from Philadelphia.

Mrs. Widener and her son, George D. Widener, Jr., have been here this week inspecting the new villa which is being erected on lower Bellevue av. for them. This will hardly be ready before another summer, and Mrs. Widener will, like last season, pass the summer at the John R. Drexel villa. Mr. and Mrs. Drexel still being abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, absentees last season, are to be among the July arrivals this year, and Mrs. Frederick Pearson will also arrive during the same month. Like Mr. and Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Pearson is having her villa, on Ochre Point, renovated preparatory to the summer opening, and there is a report that the wedding of her daughter, Miss Josephine S. Pearson, and Beverly Bogert may be a late Newport season event.

HOUSES SOUGHT AT SOUTHAMPTON

Arrivals and Rentals Among the Summer Residents for the Coming Season.

Southampton, N. Y., May 9.—More rentals have been reported for the last week. Mrs. Russell Hoadley will occupy the Pierson cottage, on South Main st., and Mrs. Lytle Fox has leased the Johnson cottage, on Toulson Lane, and expects to arrive early in June.

Among the new arrivals this week are Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Thompson, who are occupying their Red Top farm at Wickapogue, Mr. and Mrs. C. Warrington Curtis, who have recently arrived from Bermuda, are at their summer home for the season.

Mrs. H. L. Cobb, Jr., who will occupy one of the Fair Lea cottages this summer, is spending the week end at the Irving House. Other guests at the Irving are Mrs. Fred Baker and Miss Eleanor Swaine.

Mrs. Willard S. Brown who occupied the Kleisler bungalow last season, will spend the coming summer in Europe, returning early in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward De Rose and Miss De Rose will arrive for the season about May 15, and will occupy their cottage on Hill st. They have recently been visiting Mrs. De Rose's sister, Miss Annie Varum, at her cottage in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. De Forest will occupy their cottage again this season, after being away for two seasons.

Week-end guests at the Irving House are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Armstrong, of Princeton, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Stewart Doris, Mrs. A. M. McIntosh and Mrs. William Partridge and Mrs. S. K. De Forest, of New York City.

At the Meadow Club extensive alterations and preparations are being made for the coming season. Six new tennis courts are being built, the popularity of this sport making it necessary to enlarge the already spacious courts. The Tea House, situated on the sand dunes, overlooking the ocean, is an annex to the clubhouse and will open for the season on June 15.

OUTDOOR SPORTS AT LAKEWOOD

Last Polo Game of the Practice Series Fires the Hopes of Many Spectators.

Lakewood, N. J., May 9.—Society turned out in force on Thursday to see the last polo game of the practice series here on the Georgian Court grounds. The brilliant play of the "big three," with H. C. Phipps playing No. 1, was heartily applauded, and every one who witnessed the game is certain that America will have the winning team at Meadow Brook in June. On Friday all the ponies were shipped to Long Island for the final tuning-up.

Foxhall P. Keene, who has been staying at the Laurel in the Pines during the polo practice, put up a prize of $50 for a series of baseball games between the Laurel in the Pines team and the high school. The high school won both games played this week by scores of 3 to 2 and 4 to 1.

Lewis Buckley Stillwell entertained at dinner Wednesday night at the Country Club in honor of the Rev. Mr. Bruckner, the new rector of the Episcopal church. Among the guests were Girard Romaine, P. A. Potts, Charles Lathrop Pack, Jasper Lynch, H. L. Herbert, S. K. De Forest, A. E. Whitney, F. D. Hoyt, Henry O. Walker, Tunis G. Bergen, A. D. Davis, George Fales Baker, Professor E. E. Wentworth, Dr. W. G. Schauffer, Dr. Charles L. Lindley and Dr. Irwin H. Hance.

The golf course at the Country Club attracted many players during the week, and the women especially are taking up the game. Among those noticed playing were the Misses Louise Lynch and Madeline Horne, Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Mrs. N. C. Brize, Mrs. G. H. Johnson and Mrs. L. B. Johnson.

The St. Anthony Club, of New York, arrived fifty strong at the club on Friday night for their annual golf tournament. Among them were included E. B. Clay, W. H. Hippie, A. G. Maury, T. E. New-turned from Cedarhurst, Long Island, where she spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. Augustus Shepherd, acted as hostess at the week-end the dancant at the Country Club. Other dances of the week were the tea dance on Tuesday and the Saturday evening dance given at Grove Park Inn; a dance on Wednesday afternoon and a ball on Friday evening, given at the Battery Park Hotel.

Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, of Austin, Tex., president general of the Federation of Women's Clubs, was the guest of Mrs. William Johnston Cooke this week, en route to Fayetteville to attend the state federation meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Kridler, of New York, left here this week for the East, after a stay of some length in North Carolina.

Clinton J. Abbott, of New York, who is a guest at the inn, is an authority on bird life, and interested a large number of people this week with a lecture on ornithology at all Souls' Church, in Biltmore, Thursday evening. A number of the inn guests went over to Biltmore for the occasion.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., May 9.—With the exception of a few dinner parties and the daily afternoon dances at the Casino, social activities have been transferred to the farmhouses, where old Virginia luncheons, breakfasts, teas, dinners and suppers have filled in a busy week for the horseback riders, motorists, pedestrians and trappers who prefer a five-mile jaunt over the hills.

Elmhurst Farm has had a record fortnight with luncheon and tea parties, and at Mountain Home and Mann's Farm, both of which opened for the season ten days ago, there have been a number of parties.

A unique farmhouse will be added to the list shortly. The Messrs. Henry and Lawrence Dickson, who have for several years been prominently identified with the Greenbrier Horse Show and outdoor activities of Greenbrier County, recently purchased a huge tract of land on Greenbrier Mountain. On a plateau of the highest peak, which commands a magnificent view of a radius of forty miles, work will commence next week on a big, rambling log cabin, which will be completed in time for a formal opening on July 1 for the summer and fall seasons. Here lunch, breakfasts, luncheons, teas, dinners and suppers will be served all the year 'round, in old Virginia style, and, in addition to a menu of spoon bread, corn pone, waffles, fried chicken and spiced fruits, game in season will also be served. The new farmhouse, which will be known as the "Tip-Top Tea House," will be two miles from and within sight of the New Greenbrier, and will be reached by a five-mile road up the mountainside from Dry Creek. The road at present winds up the mountain within a mile of the site, and from there on the present trail will be widened for the accommodation of carriages and motors.

Mrs. Anson R. Flower, of Watertown, entertained at Elmhurst this week in compliment to the Misses Dorothy Woodruff and Elizabeth Babcock. Others who have been there and at Mountain Home and Mann's Farm include Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ormond French, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. H. Casimir de Rham, Cornelius Pugley, Arthur Leland, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram H. Borden, William de Forest Haynes, Robert L. Gerry, W. de Lancy Kountze, George S. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Henderson, Mrs. E. S. Harkness and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lyford.

Hot Springs, Va., May 9.—Weather conditions, the factor upon which enjoyment of resort life depends so largely, are now the best of the year at the Virginia Hot Springs, and a crowd that fills the Homestead Hotel spends its time in outdoor sports in the bright sunshine instead of at the gay social functions that characterize the fall season.

Each morning after breakfast there is a rush to the golf links, and among those who play most diligently are Mrs. William Earl Dodge and Miss Christine Biddle, who play in heavy brown velvets, and which they wear Egyptian fashion, and which they frequently circle the links with Prescott Metcalf, Sheldon Whitehouse, George Bird, who has been taking lessons lately of the professional to the marked improvement of his game, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Howard Chappell, George A. Draper, Miss Helen Draper, Dr. Alexander W. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. McKnight and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garlick.

Excursions into the mountains, where people have frequently stopped to pick apple blossoms, which are so abundant they have given a rosy tinge to the landscape, have engaged the attention of those here this week. Some have taken along picnic baskets, while others have driven to Fassefern Farm and Oak Grove for luncheon. Some of those entertained at the latter place have been Sir Edmund Osler, Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Philbrick, Miss Katherine May, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Osler, Mrs. G. L. Thorndyke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Cogswell, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller, Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Boettger.

Thomas H. Powers entertained a day or two ago with a driving party to the Cascades, leaving the carriages and piloting his friends over the chain of narrow foot bridges across the falls.

At Fassefern Farm John Lowe gave a luncheon recently, at which were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Norcross, Mrs. E. V. Wrenn and Frank Weston.

The meaning of platonic love is that the young gent can't afford to marry.

Miss Rita Rees, who has recently returned from Cedarhurst, Long Island, where she spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. Augustus Shepherd, acted as hostess at the week-end the dancant at the Country Club. Other dances of the week were the tea dance on Tuesday and the Saturday evening dance given at Grove Park Inn; a dance on Wednesday afternoon and a ball on Friday evening, given at the Battery Park Hotel.

Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, of Austin, Tex., president general of the Federation of Women's Clubs, was the guest of Mrs. William Johnston Cooke this week, en route to Fayetteville to attend the state federation meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Kridler, of New York, left here this week for the East, after a stay of some length in North Carolina.

Clinton J. Abbott, of New York, who is a guest at the inn, is an authority on bird life, and interested a large number of people this week with a lecture on ornithology at all Souls' Church, in Biltmore, Thursday evening. A number of the inn guests went over to Biltmore for the occasion.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA.

Many Social Functions Given at Farm Houses, Where Virginia Meals Are Served.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., May 9.—With the exception of a few dinner parties and the daily afternoon dances at the Casino, social activities have been transferred to the farmhouses, where old Virginia luncheons, breakfasts, teas, dinners and suppers have filled in a busy week for the horseback riders, motorists, pedestrians and trappers who prefer a five-mile jaunt over the hills.

Elmhurst Farm has had a record fortnight with luncheon and tea parties, and at Mountain Home and Mann's Farm, both of which opened for the season ten days ago, there have been a number of parties.

A unique farmhouse will be added to the list shortly. The Messrs. Henry and Lawrence Dickson, who have for several years been prominently identified with the Greenbrier Horse Show and outdoor activities of Greenbrier County, recently purchased a huge tract of land on Greenbrier Mountain. On a plateau of the highest peak, which commands a magnificent view of a radius of forty miles, work will commence next week on a big, rambling log cabin, which will be completed in time for a formal opening on July 1 for the summer and fall seasons. Here lunch, breakfasts, luncheons, teas, dinners and suppers will be served all the year 'round, in old Virginia style, and, in addition to a menu of spoon bread, corn pone, waffles, fried chicken and spiced fruits, game in season will also be served. The new farmhouse, which will be known as the "Tip-Top Tea House," will be two miles from and within sight of the New Greenbrier, and will be reached by a five-mile road up the mountainside from Dry Creek. The road at present winds up the mountain within a mile of the site, and from there on the present trail will be widened for the accommodation of carriages and motors.

Mrs. Anson R. Flower, of Watertown, entertained at Elmhurst this week in compliment to the Misses Dorothy Woodruff and Elizabeth Babcock. Others who have been there and at Mountain Home and Mann's Farm include Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ormond French, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. H. Casimir de Rham, Cornelius Pugley, Arthur Leland, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram H. Borden, William de Forest Haynes, Robert L. Gerry, W. de Lancy Kountze, George S. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Henderson, Mrs. E. S. Harkness and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lyford.

Hot Springs, Va., May 9.—Weather conditions, the factor upon which enjoyment of resort life depends so largely, are now the best of the year at the Virginia Hot Springs, and a crowd that fills the Homestead Hotel spends its time in outdoor sports in the bright sunshine instead of at the gay social functions that characterize the fall season.

Each morning after breakfast there is a rush to the golf links, and among those who play most diligently are Mrs. William Earl Dodge and Miss Christine Biddle, who play in heavy brown velvets, and which they wear Egyptian fashion, and which they frequently circle the links with Prescott Metcalf, Sheldon Whitehouse, George Bird, who has been taking lessons lately of the professional to the marked improvement of his game, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Howard Chappell, George A. Draper, Miss Helen Draper, Dr. Alexander W. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. McKnight and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garlick.

Excursions into the mountains, where people have frequently stopped to pick apple blossoms, which are so abundant they have given a rosy tinge to the landscape, have engaged the attention of those here this week. Some have taken along picnic baskets, while others have driven to Fassefern Farm and Oak Grove for luncheon. Some of those entertained at the latter place have been Sir Edmund Osler, Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Philbrick, Miss Katherine May, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Osler, Mrs. G. L. Thorndyke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Cogswell, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller, Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Boettger.

Thomas H. Powers entertained a day or two ago with a driving party to the Cascades, leaving the carriages and piloting his friends over the chain of narrow foot bridges across the falls.

At Fassefern Farm John Lowe gave a luncheon recently, at which were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Norcross, Mrs. E. V. Wrenn and Frank Weston.

The meaning of platonic love is that the young gent can't afford to marry.

Miss Rita Rees, who has recently re-

ATLANTIC CITY HAS A NOVELTY

One of the Beach Front Hotels Houses Alligator Brought from Florida.

Atlantic City, May 9.—A cabinet session of the staff behind the desk in one of the great beach front palaces decided during the week that a six-inch alligator, the property of Miss Edna Burrell, of Baltimore, who brought the unlovely pet from Florida, where she has been spending the winter, was a novelty as a guest, but not in the "unbearable citizen" class so long as it was confined to its wicker hamper and held in leash with a fine chain attached to a gold band fastened about its neck.

The journey to the shore through the garden state of New Jersey is one stretch of delight these springtime days. On both sides fertile fields stretch away as far as the eye can see, and at intervals magnificent orchards, clothed in mellow pink and purple, rest the eye and satisfy the soul with beauty.

And the vast fields are dotted here and there with men and women aiding Dame Nature in providing food for the world. It is the South Jersey farmer's busy season. He is getting his early "garden sash" ready for the seashore and city markets. He is providing young and tender "radishers" for the shore boarding house and hotel and young onions likewise for the delectation of young onion lovers.

The old salts and sea capes are well through their annual spring overhauling and are ready for the springtime invasion of that army who love to go down to the sea in ships, a-sailing at 50 cents per sail across the bounding billows near the shore.

Additions are being made daily to the ranks of the bathers, but it is not yet the season for the timid, the easily chilled or those afraid of the water; they come later, when the surf is so jammed with bathers that it is impossible to fall down. But that time is coming, and the Wooden Way and Atlantic City are in readiness.

Straw hats, open streetcars and a goodly number of bathers in the surf have been suggestive of the good old summer time down here by the sea during the week. The temperature was springlike during the early days of the week and the skies have been sunny. It was ideal weather for an auto run to the shore, and many inland cars have been checked in at local garages since the first of May.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Richert are New York visitors at the Shelburne over the week end.

Mrs. William Morris and Mrs. A. P. Newbold are New York matrons at the Hotel Dennis during an early May stay.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Galland are guests at the Traymore.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Reynolds are New York City folk domiciled at the Alamac.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Horn, of New York, have apartments at the Hotel Arlington during a Maytime fortnight by the waves.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Strauss are guests at the Rudolf during a May fortnight.

Other New York visitors down by the sea include:

Sherburne—Mrs. A. H. Woods, Paul W. Englehardt, A. M. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. John Cort, Mrs. H. Wise Strand, Miss Katherine Dalton, R. J. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. A. Keener, Mrs. S. M. Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Scophia, Mrs. L. Freshaut and A. E. R. de Blanche.

Dennis—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Balford, Mrs. H. Louise Yauber and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Williamson.

Traymore—Mrs. L. S. Stern, Mrs. M. Oliver Barstow, Dr. Edwin Linderman, Mrs. E. S. Howard and Francis J. Goodwin.

Alamac—Edmund I. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nordling, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stadler, Mr. and Mrs. William Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ford, D. H. Hoffman, R. L. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Salzer.

Rudolf—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Capcan, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Erlich, L. E. Oppenheimer, Mrs. Henry M. Goodman, Miss E. B. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Freedman, Mrs. S. G. Krause, Mrs. B. L. Schiff.

Arlington—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sunkenburg, Mrs. Arthur Gans, N. B. Dorian, Miss Alice B. Amroth and G. S. Donrino.

St. Charles—H. T. Healey, Mrs. A. M. Healey, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, S. C. Austin, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Padgett, L. S. Wolf and Mrs. Thomas Stern.

Loraine—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Alsberg, Mrs. C. P. Fink, Mrs. H. S. Elkan, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cork, Miss D. W. Fried and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Simmonds.

SEEN FROM THE OMNIBUS SOME SELECT SHOPS

IN THE FIFTH AVENUE DISTRICT

Along and above the street level in the many large buildings in Fifth Avenue and in the side streets, within a stone's throw from New York's leading thoroughfare, are numerous smart shops that cater to the well-informed. Announcements of some of the more important appear below. The habit of referring regularly to this department will be interesting and profitable.

MILLINERY. MILLINERY.

Special Sale of Adolphe

STUNNING SUMMER HATS

At About 1/2 of Regular Prices

26 East 34th St., N. Y. City Opposite H. Altman & Co.

TOILET REQUISITES.

EVERY WOMAN WILL FIND IN "THE BOUDOIR"

the things most essential to a well groomed

One Jar Nourishing Cream, REGULAR PRICE, $1.00. One Jar Cleansing Cream, REGULAR PRICE, $1.00. One Bottle Skin Tonic, REGULAR PRICE, $1.00. All Three in "The Boudoir" for $2.00. While in the wholesale price, a saving of one-third to you.

Box also contains directions for face mask, pattern for chic strap and formula for external lotion to reduce double chin. Send $2.00, adding 10c. for post postage, to Suite 605 T.

JEAN DOWNS, 334 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

BLOUSES.

NEW BLOUSES AT 1/2 PRICE

An importer's stock of the latest French styles, hand embroidered, hand tucked and ruffled, of handkerchief lawn.

$10.50 REAL VALUE $16.00 WM. S. KINSEY & CO. 346 Madison Ave., at 44th St.

GOWNS.

CLARKE PARISIAN NOVELTIES.

HAIR PINS, Bar Pins, Bandeaux, Malines and Velvet Collars, Hair Ornaments in Simili Diamonds and Perles Electra. Best workmanship. Artistic and beautiful finish.

Exquisia Perfumes 545 5TH AVE., NEAR 6TH ST.

HAIRDRESSING.

Exclusive Styles in Hair Goods LATEST EUROPEAN PERFECTION. Hairdressing, Shampooing, Manicuring MAISON P. HERRMANN Phone Greeley 2333, 21 West 38th St., N. Y.

Ladies' Hairdresser.

shampooing, Manicures, 13 West 38th St. and Plaza Hotel.

Parker

MILLINERY. 28 EAST 34th ST. Stylish All Black Hats, Smart Hats at $10.00. Blocking and Remodeling. (Formerly at 48 W. 23d St.)

MODEL HATS $10.00

LOUIS LICHTENSTEIN, 1560 BROADWAY, Bet. 46th & 47th Sts. Two doors from Palace Theatre.

MME. ROSE

19 W. 34th ST. To open up the spring season all our original Model Hats at $7.00 and $10.00. Cannot be duplicated under $15.00 to $35.00. Why miss this wonderful offering?

ELEANOR New York City

Smart and Exclusive Hats for All Occasions. We Cater to Individual Taste.

SCALP AND FACIAL TREATMENTS. MARGARET KEELER

Treatment for the Face and Scalp. Superfluous Hair Removed. Electricity. Guaranteed. 500 Fifth Ave. Phone 4343 Brant.

UNDERGARMENTS.

IOIA-WEIGHT Sanitary Goods, Dainty Garments, Tangleless Nitted Pajamas, 20 cents to 1.00. CRESSE-BAILLY CO., Inc., 314 5th Ave. Entrance on 23d St.

DRESS FORMS.

PLASTIC DRESS FORM. Your figure for the time from head to foot. You can stick pins in without injuring it. Call or write for Booklet "T." CRESSE-BAILLY CO.,